Welcome

THANK YOU for joining us for worship today!

We pray that your spiritual life will be nourished through Word and Sacrament.

- † If you do not want to use a paper bulletin this morning, you can access the bulletin on our website – www.stpaulsplymouth.org. The entire worship service is printed out so that you do not need to use the hymnal.
- † Offering plates can be found at the entrances. After the sermon, the offering plates will be brought to the altar during the singing of a hymn. This is a reminder that giving offerings for gospel ministry is an act of worship.
- † May the Lord bless the time we spend together around His Word this morning! If you are looking for a church to call home, please contact Pastor Berger (pastorberger@gmail.com; call/text 402-239-4509) or Pastor Dauck (justin.dauck@gmail.com; call/text 402-806-9082) or stop by the church office. They would love to serve you with God's Word!
- † If you desire, there is a nursery in the back on the west side of the church, but please know that your children are ALWAYS welcome in our service no matter how much noise they make. We're happy to have them hear the Word and join us praising God with their voices!
- † Before you leave, please sign the guest register. It is located on the top of the stairs in the church entryway.
- † Please talk to one of the Elders (seated in the back of the church) if you have questions about the service or the congregation.
- † Large print service folders are available. Please speak to one of the Elders if this would be of assistance to you.
- † Listening assist devices are available at St. Paul's. Please speak to one of the elders if you would like one for this morning's service.
- † Our Sunday morning service can be heard on KWBE 1450AM (94.7FM) and viewed live and archived at www.stpaulsplymouth.org. Please share this information with those who are not able to attend worship.

Focus for Our Worship

The Third Sunday after Trinity Sunday in the historic church year is often called "The Sunday of the Lost Sheep." We see Jesus' heart for the lost. As we confess our sins this morning, we remember that Jesus came to save us, who once were indeed lost. In view of His mercy, we are privileged to use the gifts that He has given us to share full and free forgiveness with another sinner who has yet to hear of his/her Savior. May the Spirit work through the Word this morning to lead us to rejoice, "Jesus sinners does receive." That's talking about _____ (insert your own name). "Even I have been forgiven" (CW 304). And so we pray: "Lord, thank You for pursuing me, a lost sinner and hurling my iniquities into the depths of the sea through Your Son. Now, Lord, give me a heart to share Your life-saving Gospel with one more lost sinner. Amen."

Service of the Word (with the Gathering Rite on the Word)

PRAYER OF THE DAY

M O God, the protector of them that hope in You, without whom nothing is strong and nothing holy, so multiply upon us Your mercy, that, with You as ruler and with You as guide, we may so pass through things temporal that we lose not things eternal; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

THE WORD

FIRST LESSON – Micah 7:18-20

The name of the prophet means “Who is like the Lord?” Here Micah answers the question that his name brings up – no one! There is only one true God who reveals Himself unlike any of the gods humans have conjured up. The Triune God seeks sinners to shower them with His forgiveness.

¹⁸Who is a God like you,
who pardons sin and forgives
the transgression
of the remnant of his inheritance?

You do not stay angry forever
but delight to show mercy.

¹⁹You will again have
compassion on us;
you will tread our sins
underfoot
and hurl all our iniquities into the depths of the sea.

²⁰You will be true to Jacob,
and show mercy to Abraham,
as you pledged on oath to our fathers
in days long ago.

PSALM OF THE DAY – PSALM 25

Refrain

To you, O Lord, I lift my soul; in you I trust, my God.

Psalm tone

To you, O LORD, I lift | up my soul;
in you I trust, | O my God.

Remember, O LORD, your great mer- | cy and love,
for they are | from of old.

Remember not the sins of my youth and my re- | bellious ways;
according to your love remember me, for you are | good, O LORD.

Refrain

Turn to me and be gra- | cious to me,
for I am lonely and af- | flicted.

Look upon my affliction and | my distress
and take away | all my sins.

Guard my life and | rescue me,
for I take ref- | uge in you.

Glory be to the Father and | to the Son
and to the Holy | Spirit,
as it was in the be- | ginning,
is now, and will be forever. | Amen.

Refrain

SECOND LESSON – Romans 12:1-8

Seeking the lost means those who are found working together as one body of believers with their God-given gifts.

Therefore, I urge you, brothers, in view of God’s mercy, to offer your bodies as living sacrifices, holy and pleasing to God—this is your spiritual act of worship. ² Do not conform any longer to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God’s will is—his good, pleasing and perfect will.

³ For by the grace given me I say to every one of you: Do not think of yourself more highly than you ought, but rather think of yourself with sober judgment, in accordance with the measure of faith God has given you. ⁴ Just as each of us has one body with many members, and these members do not all have the same function, ⁵ so in Christ we who are many form one body, and each member belongs to all the others. ⁶ We have different gifts, according to the grace given us. If a man’s gift is prophesying, let him use it in proportion to his faith. ⁷ If it is serving, let him serve; if it is teaching, let him teach; ⁸ if it is encouraging, let him encourage; if it is contributing to the needs of others, let him give generously; if it is leadership, let him govern diligently; if it is showing mercy, let him do it cheerfully.

VERSE OF THE DAY – Luke 19:10

Alleluia. ¹⁰ For the Son of Man came to seek and to save what was lost. Alleluia!

HOLY GOSPEL – Luke 15:1-10

These are the first two of three parables Jesus speaks to those who muttered about Jesus, “This man welcomes sinners and eats with them.” Jesus makes the point as He does many times in Scripture that He came to seek and to save the lost. The life of repentance recognizes sin and turns to Jesus for full and free forgiveness. This will serve as our sermon text for this morning...

Now the tax collectors and “sinners” were all gathering around to hear him. ² But the Pharisees and the teachers of the law muttered, “This man welcomes sinners and eats with them.”

³ Then Jesus told them this parable: ⁴ “Suppose one of you has a hundred sheep and loses one of them. Does he not leave the ninety-nine in the open country and go after the lost sheep until he finds it? ⁵ And when he finds it, he joyfully puts it on his shoulders ⁶ and goes home. Then he calls his friends and neighbors together and says, ‘Rejoice with me; I have found my lost sheep.’” ⁷ I tell you that in the same way there will be more rejoicing in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous persons who do not need to repent.

⁸“Or suppose a woman has ten silver coins and loses one. Does she not light a lamp, sweep the house and search carefully until she finds it? ⁹And when she finds it, she calls her friends and neighbors together and says, ‘Rejoice with me; I have found my lost coin.’ ¹⁰In the same way, I tell you, there is rejoicing in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner who repents.”

M This is the Gospel of our Lord!

C: Praise be to you, O Christ!

APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended into hell. The third day He rose again from the dead. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty. From there He will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Christian Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

CLOSING PRAYER AND BLESSING

M Almighty God, we thank You for teaching us the things You want us to believe and do. Help us by Your Holy Spirit to keep Your Word in pure hearts that we may be strengthened in faith, guided in holiness, and comforted in life and in death, through Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

M Brothers and sisters, go in peace. Live in harmony with one another. Serve the Lord with gladness.

The LORD bless you and keep you.

The LORD make His face shine on you and be gracious to you.

The LORD look on you with favor and ☩ give you peace.

What does it mean to be a “Confessional” Lutheran Church body?

Lutherans recognize October 31, 1517 as an important day in the history of God’s Church...and it is! That day, now over 500 years ago, began the Lutheran Reformation. The culmination came later, on June 25, 1530, with the presentation of a document called the Augsburg Confession. Sometimes it’s called the “birthday” of the Lutheran Church but, in reality, it was a return to Biblical Christianity that had been lost in the ideas of man.

Far from being a dusty relic of history that has lost its relevance, the Augsburg Confession remains one of the foundational statements of belief for Lutherans today.

We normally think of the word “confession” as a sincere admission of sin or guilt. Every Sunday we confess our sins publicly to God and to each other.

But there is another important way to understand and use the word “confession.” As Christians, we confess our faith when we state publicly what we believe. Early Christians confessed their faith boldly in the face of fierce opposition and even persecution. Throughout the centuries, as false teachers attempted to distort the truth of God’s Word, Christians carefully and prayerfully confessed what they believed. This is where the Apostles’, Nicene, and Athanasian Creeds come from.

Martin Luther did not intend to begin a new church; he wanted to reform the church by returning its teachings to the teachings of the Bible. When that proved to be impossible, Lutherans saw the need to state clearly what they believed. During Luther’s life and in the decades after his death, he and others wrote what have come to be known as the Lutheran Confessions. Some of these confessions, such as Luther’s Large and Small Catechism, were intended as summaries of Christian doctrine for instructional purposes. Others, such as the Augsburg Confession and its Apology, the Smalcald Articles, and the Formula of Concord, were written to state clearly the scriptural teachings of the Lutheran church in contrast to the false teachings of other churches at the time.

Our Wisconsin Synod is a confessional Lutheran church. Every pastor and teacher in our synod publicly vows to remain faithful, without reservation, to the teachings of Scripture as summarized in the three ecumenical creeds and in the six Lutheran confessions. New confirmands do the same.

What makes a Lutheran synod confessional? It does the following:

- Believes that the truth of God’s Word, as revealed in Scripture and summarized in the confessions, does not change.
- Stands on the Bible’s foundational teaching that we are saved by God’s grace alone, through faith in Christ alone. It recognizes that the blessings of faith come only by the Holy Spirit’s working through the gospel proclaimed in God’s Word and in the sacraments.

- Understands and applies the clear distinction between law and gospel. A confessional Lutheran church proclaims God’s law in all its stark bluntness and God’s gospel in all its amazing beauty.
- Values the rich heritage of doctrine and worship that God has preserved to us through the wisdom, courage, and creativity of those who have gone before us.

Celebrates the freedom that God has given us in the gospel. It is careful to avoid any hint of legalism that imposes rules where God has not. It avoids misusing the freedom in a way that does not show Christian love for the other members of the body of Christ. It recognizes that often the most faithful exercise of our Christian freedom is when we willingly choose not to exercise that freedom out of love and concern for others.

Not every Lutheran church body today is a confessional Lutheran church. Some have chosen not to be. Others claim to be confessional, but their teachings and practices do not reflect it. By God’s grace, WELS is still a confessional Lutheran church. It’s who we are. It is, by God’s grace, what we will remain.

Here at St. Paul's & Christ Lutheran, we will commemorate the Presentation of the Augsburg Confession on June 27th, 491 years after it was first publicly read in Germany.

Prayer Updates

† Wayne Zimmerman – Wayne underwent a successful hip replacement surgery at Bryan West on Monday. He was allowed to return home on Tuesday.

Farewell—St. Paul's Board of Education and the PTO will be hosting a farewell for Mrs. Briney immediately following our worship service today in the school gym. It is a potluck, but feel free to join us even if you forgot to bring food – there is always plenty! If you are unable to attend and would like to drop off a card, you may bring it to the church office tomorrow.

Call Extended— Last Sunday, St. Paul's extended a Divine Call to Mrs. Kimberly Frey to serve as our Kindergarten and 1st grade teacher for the 2021-22 school year. Mrs. Frey has been serving at St. Paul's Lutheran School in Appleton, Wisconsin for the past three school years. She will be moving to Waco along with her family this summer when her husband, Pastor Andrew Frey, begins his service as the campus pastor at Nebraska Lutheran High School.

Please keep Mrs. Frey and her family in your prayers as she deliberates this call to serve in the public teaching ministry here at St. Paul's. Mrs. Frey's contact information is below if you'd like to share some words of encouragement:

Cell # 402-841-3099

Email: kimberlyaaberg@hotmail.com

Ordination/Installation—Candidate Seth Krueger will be installed as associate pastor at Mt. Olive, Overland Park, KS on Sunday, June 27th, at 4:00 p.m. He was a former student at Michigan Lutheran Seminary when Pastor Dauck was serving there as a tutor. This month he graduated from Wisconsin Lutheran Seminary and was assigned to serve as associate pastor at Mt. Olive.

Retirement—At the end of the 2020-2021 school year, Steve Schultz will be retiring from the teaching ministry. He served here at St Paul's from 1978-83. His family is asking former students and congregational members to share a message of congratulations. They are using something called a "Kudoboard" to gather messages, pictures and video for Steve and Carol. If you'd like to contribute, the process is easy. Go to <https://www.kudoboard.com/boards/03XMv6yZ> and leave a message by clicking on the "Add to Board" icon and following the directions. With Covid restricting larger gatherings at churches and schools, the family is having a small retirement party on Saturday, June 26th, when they will share the Kudoboard with Steve and Carol. Until then, they ask that you keep this a surprise.

Church Directory—Beginning June 21, the online sign-ups for church directory pictures will be available. Online sign-ups can be accessed by going to www.ucdir.com. The user name is: ne108 and the password is: photos. Note: Families can sign-up from home on Monday-Friday. The system allows for home sign-ups only during the week. Families will be able to sign up in person at church beginning July 4. Picture dates will be August 19-21 and Sept. 16-18. Since we were unable to have a new directory compiled last year, we look forward to having an updated directory containing current pictures and information for all of our church families this year. Also, if you would be willing to help out by serving as a hostess during the times families are arriving for their photo sessions, please contact Deb. Thanks!!
